Rome – Venice – 18-Red

By Megan P and Anna S

Yesterday the 18-red team left Rome early in the morning. We took a 3-hour train ride to Venice. We had an opportunity to relax and enjoy the view on the way. When we arrived in Venice we had to store our suitcases in the storage lockers at the train station, thankfully we did not have to put our backpacks in our suitcases! In Venice, we had about five hours to shop, explore the city, and eat some more gelato. We visited the Piazza San Marco and saw the Saint Mark's Basilica. After a long day of walking we made our way back to the train station to head for Milan. After being delayed for close to an hour our team finally made it to Milan. We had to take multiple metro trains in order to get to our hotel. There we had dinner as a team and then headed to bed. Today in Milan we enjoyed a nice breakfast after being able to sleep in a little longer than usual. We are heading to a castle and a church in the city. From there we have free time to shop and explore!
