

Northern Lights – Italy Tour
Day 4, Thursday 3-29
Milan – 18-Red

Today, we were able to sleep in and ate breakfast at our hotel. Alexis really enjoyed the Nutella dispenser at our breakfast. After we ate breakfast, we got ready and left the hotel at 11. We walked to the Metro and took 2 lines to the Sforza castle. We walked through the gardens and museum inside. In the museum they had different statutes, furniture and art from time periods between 1746-1985. After going through the museum, we took some pictures at a large fountain outside the castle, before walking to the Duomo and shops. We took pictures at the Duomo and then all were set free to explore and shop. Half of us ate lunch at a burger place and then went off to shop. Our lowest spender on the team spent only 35 euros. On the other hand, our highest spender spent 450 euros. Before we had to meet back, many of us got gelato. At 7 we met back at the Duomo and had dinner together in the city. We all got huge pizzas and only three of us were able to finish them. Overall, we had a very fun day.

Ciao from Milan,
Liv and Julia
