On Monday morning we woke up around 8 o'clock, and headed down to the hotel breakfast. After breakfast, everyone went to their rooms and got in their playing gear. We met downstairs in a group after and walked to go see the Olympic Rings where the Winter Olympics were held in 1964 & 1976. Then, we headed back to the hotel and had a little more time to finish getting ready.

At 11:45 we headed over to the gym for our first match of the day, and the walk takes about 25ish minutes. When we arrived we ate lunch in the cafeteria, which was a choice of spaghetti or soup. After everyone was finished we walked to the gym to play both of our matches.

In between our first and second match we headed to the local grocery stop and basically bought the whole store. When we got back to the school we ate dinner, and then played our last match. Furthermore, both teams played their two matches and we proceeded to win all.

Finally, we walked back to the hotel, turned our phones in, and headed to bed.

On Tuesday day 9, we woke up bright at early at 6am, and headed down to eat breakfast. After, we walked over at 7:30 to ref the game before ours. Then both teams proceeded to play their first game at 10:40. In addition to both teams winning their first match, it led to us reffing another match. As a result we went to lunch, where grilled cheese and many different pasta salads were served.

Next, both teams played their last match of the day at 2 o'clock. After everyone took the dubs, we headed back to the hotel to get ready for the team party later that night. When we arrived at the hotel we had a couple hours to rest and get ready for the party.

At 6:45 we walked back to the school as a team to eat dinner, which was curry. When it hit 8 o'clock, we joined the other teams in the small gym, where a DJ started to play some music. Us Americans started the trend of singing and dancing in a circle, later everyone joined in to make a big dance circle.

At about 10:00pm we met our coaches in the lunch room to head back to the hotel. Once we arrived at the hotel we had some time to hangout with our team, but then at 10:30 we turned in our phone and headed to bed.
